The new Discovery Center for the JW Marriott Residences Loreto made its debut this week. The word is that it is the finest sales center on the Baja! Of course, the setting alone could deliver that claim, but the sales center features truly authentic, old Spanish architecture that is just stunning both inside and out!

Historically, the building is only about 30 years old, and is preserved from the former El Presidente/Whales Inn history of the site. Now, all the old hotel buildings are gone save for this one, and is it ever spectacular! From the spacious terraces that provide for enjoyment during breakfasts, lunches and cocktail hours that the sales team loves to host, to the gracious interiors provided by Touch of History and New Home Sales Centers of Scottsdale, it's hard to remember you are in a sales salon and not a fine custom home!
